

Allocation of the OR-GCES within the portfolio of the Ministry for Home Affairs, Security, Reforms and Equality

21 April 2022

Following the Maltese General Elections held on 26 March 2022 and the subsequent allocation of Ministerial portfolios, the Office of the Regulator (GCES) has been assigned to the Ministry for Home Affairs, Security, Reforms and Equality. This information was communicated through OPM Circular 4/2022 dated 6th April 2022. This is the third time in which this Office has been assigned to the Ministry responsible for Home Affairs. Subsequently, it had formed part of the Ministry for Justice, Culture and Local Government and between 2017 and 2019 had formed part of the Office of the Prime Minister.
